ASYLUM WAS IN APPLE PIE ORDER

Committees Found Everything in a Satisfactory Condition.

BEST IN THE STATE.

Movement on Foot to Get A Increased Per Capita Allowance.

The Senate and House Committees on Charitable Institution spent Saturday at the Western Asylum and left the same afternoon for Louisville. The institution was carefully inspected and pronounced to be in excellent condition.

Dr. Milton Board and Col. Albert Scott, members of the State Board of Control, accompanied the committees.

The members of the committees expressed the opinion that the Western Asylum was in a better condition than either of the others.

Col. Scott said to-day:

"In efficiency of management, in the matter of economy and certainly as regards the mental state of the patients, the Hopkinsville asylum is unequalled. That nearly all of these insane people seem happy and tranquil is remarkable. There are fewer violent inmates than in any other institution in Kentucky."

Effort is being made to secure an increased per capita appropriation for the maintenance of lunatics. The per capita at present is $150 a year and $175 at least, or $200 if practicable, is desired. The advanced cost of food and clothing, the need of modern therapeutic equipment, the employment of more skilled alienists and a more competent grade of attendants are argued in support of the movement. It is said to be probable that the joint committee will make recommendations along this line. Members of the committee are of the opinion that the Legislature will change the name of the institution from asylum to hospital.

ANOTHER FIRE

Reported From Montgomery County, Tenn.

Clarksville, Ky., Feb. 3.—A large tobacco barn on Elige Nichols farm, near Fredonia, was destroyed by fire Friday night by unknown persons. A stack of oats on the same farm was also destroyed. Nichols is the man who had about eight acres of tobacco pulled up last August by a band of night riders. He is a member of the association.

In Montgomery.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Jan. 30.—Incendiarists burned a large tobacco barn belonging to John C. McDaniel, near Rogers Mill, this county, this morning. The barn was located seven miles from this city, and particulars were hard to secure.

In the barn were 23,000 pounds of tobacco, two cows, farm implements, harness, etc. All were destroyed. McDaniel carried $1,700 insurance on the tobacco, which had been sold to Carlisle buyers, but had not been delivered.

STILL AFTER COLEMAN.

Another Share Crop on One of His Farms Destroyed.

Jas. D. Coleman was again visited by night riders and a crop of tobacco raised by a share hand named Jim Macrae was destroyed on one of Mr. Coleman's farms near Roaring Springs. Advancements in the way of supplies had been made to Macrae until practically all of the crop belonged to Coleman. The tobacco was hanging in the barn in a very dry condition and was taken down and trampled upon until it was rendered worthless for pricing purposes. The visit is alleged to have been made about a week ago. After the burning of Mr. Coleman's barn on the Sybert place in this county last month another share crop on the same farm owned in part by Green Long, col., was brought to a pricing house in this city.

Marriage Licenses.

February started off with two marriages. License were obtained Saturday for the marriage of L. A. Shepherd and Miss Pearl Olvey. Monday license were granted for the marriage of Lee B. McKnight and Miss Kate Brown.

W. D. LINDSAY DEAD AT 82

Was Devout Member of the Methodist Church Nearly 73 Years.

PASSED AWAY SUNDAY.

Is Survived by Three Sons, Three Daughters and Two Sisters.

Mr. William D. Lindsay, one of our oldest citizens, died last Sunday morning at 10:50 o'clock, at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. R. F. West, on South Virginia street, of the infirmities of old age.

Funeral services, by the pastor, Rev. George H. Means, were conducted at the Methodist church yesterday morning and the remains were laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Lindsay was born in June, 1819. He is survived by six children and two sisters. His sons are Larkin Lindsay, of Memphis; Clarence, of Clarksville, and Joe B., of Dawson; Mrs. Hattie West, Mrs. Minerva Moore and Mrs. Grace McGinnis, all of this city. Two sisters, one living in Christian county, the other in Lewisburg, Ky., survive Mr. Lindsay.

The deceased was a model Christian man and was far more familiar with the Bible than most men. He had great faith and was gifted in prayer. He was a devout member of the Methodist church for nearly 73 years, professing religion, it is said when only about fifteen years of age.

The greater part of his long and useful life was spent in Hopkinsville, where he reared his children, working at his trade, that of a saddle and harness maker. Though he left his children no fortune, their heritage is far greater, the memory of a father who was honest, whose life was that of a faithful Christian, loving mankind, and whose aspiration was to do good in the world, rather than to lay up treasure on earth. His treasure-house is above.
